Went to post at 2:30. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handly. Gallant ran under reserve to the stretch, then came on fast, overtook the leaders and won with something in reserve. Lythelist got away poorly and ran an impressive race, inishing with a rush. Abelard got away with a running start and showed speed, but fired in the stretch. Simplicity ran well. James IK. Ward was crowded against the fence and his rider had to be lifted from the saddle on account of injury to his foot. Overweights—Water Pansy, 1 pound.

Celebration got off well and soon established a small lead and, after shaking off Kenton, had enough left to stall off Louise Macfarlan. Oaklawn Books Reap a Harvest-Hildebrand May Ride Hallowmas In Crescent City Derby.

Hot Springs, Ark., March 13.—The heavy rain of the early morning hours caused numerous scratches and the threatening weather, which finally turned into a light drizzle later in the afternoon, kept the attendance down to regulars at Oaklawn. A heavy fog settled over the course just after the running of the fifth race, making it impossible to distinguish even the forms of the horses after the start until they were within a sixteenth of a mile of the finish.

After yesterday's disastrous defeat of favorites, it was expected the choices would have their inning today, and the big investors went at the twelve bookmakers with a vengance from the outset. The money literally poured into the ring on Mayor Johnson. The defeats of Maxim Gorky and La Pucelle, also heavy favorites, followed the downfall of Mayor Johnson. Then Etrena, backed into favoritism, won. That was all the talent got, as Tres Joli and Dave Stall were both at a long price and proved handy winners.

Jockey Hildebrand received an offer from J. M.

That was art the tarent got, act was an offer from J. M. Stahl were both at a long price and proved handy winners.

Jockey Hildebrand received an offer from J. M. Johnson, owner of Hallowmas, to come to New Orleans and ride the colt in the Crescent City Derby, Hildebrand telegraphed back that he would ride the colt on condition that he received $1,000 for winning, and $200 and expenses as a losing fee. After Jacomo's defeat in the fifth race, J. O. Keene disposed of him to Ed. Trotter for the reported price of $1,500,

A deal is on for the transfer of La Pucelle to J. R. Walnwright. The price asked is said to be $3,500.

Eirena was sold before the racing and she started in her new owner's colors today.

John Lowe has decided to ship his small string on Saturday to Sheepshead Bay. There he will take charge of part of the Hayman string for the summer campaign on New York tracks.

ORBICULAR MAKES A GOOD SHOWING.

New Orleans, La., March 13.—Form players were in sore straits at City Park this afternoon, while those who take stable information as a guide to their speculation, made the bookmakers wish they were in China or some other place. Six of the seven winners were well backed at remunerative odds and the books suffered accordingly. Minnic Adams was the only favorite to win, but the money paid out on the long shots. Jockey Swain rode his first winner at the meeting when he landed Lochgoil first in the seventh race. J. H. Baker furnished two of the winners in Oratorian and Lochgoil, Orbicular loomed up as a dangerous factor in the City Park Derby when he finished second to Minale Adams in the fourth race this afternoon. It was the way he finished when Troxler called on him in the last quarter that onened the eyes of those who have not been taking Orbicular's chances seriously. From the head of the stretch to the winning mark Orbicular was timed separately in 24 seconds. The hast eighth in 11½. He worked out a mile and a furlong in 1:53½, good enough time to beat almost any three-year-old here.

MACY JR, WILL START IN DERRY.

MACY JR. WILL START IN DERBY.

MACY JR. WILL START IN DERBY.

New Orleans, La., March 13.—Macy Jr. is now considered a certain starter in the Crescent City Derby. John Huffman, who trains him, does not express any great confidence in his chances, but his owner. Sam Lazarus, wants him to go and so he he will be sent to the post. He had only 86 pounds up today in the feature event, a handicap at a mile and an eighth, but he had good horses to beat and beat them impressively.

S. C. Hildreth's Derby candidate, Guiding Star, did an impressive work after the first race. Carrying 124 pounds, he went the Derby distance as follows: 124, 254, 368, 49, 1:013, 1:144, 1:28, 1:424, 1:565. This made him more supporters.

Lotus Eater galloped six furlongs in 1:23. It was just a warming up, by; some shrewd trainers expressed the opinion that it was not at all a good move. Sam Hildreth seemed especially jubilant over it. Ben Hodder was sent a mile in 1:44 handily.

MEMBERS OF THE JOCKEY CLUB.

"In view of the present crusade at Albany against racetrack betting and the turf in general including a bitter tirade against the Jockey Club, which controls the tracks operated in this State, it may be of interest to the public, whether prejudiced in favor of or against racing, to know something about this governing body in the East," says the New York Sun. "The Jockey Club was formed on February 7, 1894, taking the place of the old Board of Control. Its organizers were James Galway, A. J. Cassatt, G. L. Knapp, John Hunter, James B. Haggin, William C. Whitney, F. K. Sturgis, O. H. Payue, W. P. Thompson, James R. Keene and Perry Relmont. The original membership was limited to thirty, with John Hunter chairman and James K. Keene vice-chairman, a position the latter has held ever since. Ten of these original members have died since, including W. C. Whitney, S. S. Brown, A. F. Walcott, J. G. K. Lawrence and G. L. Knapp, At present the membership in the club has been increased to fifty, with a large waiting list. Last week for the first time in a number of years the Racing Calendar published a full list of the Jockey Club's members as follows: J. Harry Alexandre, August Belmont, O. H. P. HORSEMAN SEEKS ENLIGHTENMENT.

"Will somebody please explain to me." said a horseman at the Gravesend track to a New York Sun man, "why it is that I cannot make use of my own money in accordance with my wishes without having other people step in and stop me? If I want to bet on a swimming match or a horse race, it seems to me I've got a right to in this free country, as there's no harm in betting, and the American race is made up of speculators anyway. Then why are other folks allowed to get up on their hind legs and yell against betting on horses when nobody compels them to go to the tracks and nobody is taking a dollar out of their pockets? It will be pretty tough plcking when another fellow can tell me what I shall or shall not do with my own coin as long as I haven't taken it from him in the first place. These reformers are always butting in, but do you notice that nobody ever interferes with their methods of getting a living? If a man doesn't believe in betting nobody will force him to speculate, but is it fair for him to stop others who can make a good living out of racing and ask no favors?"

HEARING AT ALBANY TODAY.

New York, March 13.—The racing interests will receive a hearing at Albany tomorrow and many strong arguments in favor of the turf will be set forth. The greatest opposition to the anti-betting bill has developed among the rural citizens whose agricultural fairs receive an annual donation of about $250,000, the amount of the State racing tax. Without this money the agricultural societies of the State could not live unless the money was voted to them by the Legislature, a plan that has been suggested by the advocates of reform, headed by Anthony, Comstock, who lives in New Jersey. That racing is immensely popular with all classes cannot be denied. In fact, beyond a few professional reformers who have persistently attacked the sport, turfmen declare that there are no real antagonists but that as a matter of truth the people do not want to see the tracks closed and the big stakes abolished.

EXPECTS BILL TO BE DEFEATED.

"A man who was in Albany to attend the hearing on the anti-racetrack betting bill declares that there was evidence of an overwhelming opposition to the measure, and that indications point to its defeat." says the New York Sun. "If the bill providing for an 8 per cent. State racing tax becomes a law this man says it will be a long time before the antagonists of the turf will have even a remote chance to put an end to the sport. Furthermore, this person declares that the legislators realize that if the tracks should be closed in this State there would be racing at other tracks which would result in the opening of hundreds of poolrooms in this city and elsewhere that would otherwise remain closed. Another rumor of bribery in relation to the anti-betting bill is in circulation, but it is regarded by wise soorting men as a huge joke. The, Jockey Club will stand on its merits, they say."

RAJEERT'S DEFEAT OCCASIONS COMMENT.

RALBERT'S DEFEAT OCCASIONS COMMENT.

Sair Francisco, Cal., March 13.—The defeat of Ralbert, the favorite in the closing race at Oakland this afternoon, caused a storm of criticism from followers of form. Outkrieh was the only winner bringing profit to the talent. The bushwackers were the ones who cashed when Wenriek won. Bonaventure jumped the back fence on the way to the post in the two-year-old race and a big flurry ensued in the betting enclosure. When it had subsided the normal odds prevailed against the youngster. Batilor was the successful medium of a big coup. L. Williams is again on the ailing list. W. Smith, who rode The Lady Robesia yesterday, has been indefinitely suspended.

GETTING READY TO LEAVE ASCOT.

Los Angeles, March 13.—R. Angarola leaves Saturday for Bennings with twelve horses. The remainder of his string he will ship to Jamaica. J. Fitzsimmons goes Thursday to Bennings with ten. Jockey W. Miller also goes with him and will ride at Washington. James Blute will ship nine to Bennings Thursday. James Curl will ship nine to Bennings Thursday. James Curl will ship here about the 21st and on the same day Billy Oliver will ship his horses to Sheepshead Bay.

SHIELDS DEPARTS IN A HURRY.

New Orleans, La., March 13.—Alex, Shields made a harried departure tonight for New York. Shields had big bets on St. Valentine at the old track and on Bill Carter at City Park. In all he lost something like $10,000 on the two horses and he could not get out of town quick enough. Shields ordered all his horses shipped to his farm at Bound Brook at once.

OFFICIALS TO LEAVE NEW ORLEANS.

New Orleans, La., March 13.—There will be an exodus of officials from both tracks on March 24 for Washington. Judge Murphy and starter Cassidy will leave City Park and Judge McDowell and Paddock Judge Hall will desert the old track. A majority of the horsemen who intend racing in the East this season will leave here during the coming two weeks.

OGKEY, DAYS IN ADVANCE. If you ever had any doubt in regard to John J. Ward being a practical horseman and trainer and a man in a position to get the best advance information obtainable, I will dispel all that doubt by giving the name of the horse and that of the jockey who will ride. A sensational trick that will be cut loose SATURDAY, MARCH 17, days in advance. Has any one else been able to give such advance information? I guess not. This kind of advance information proves conclusively that I hobnob with ers and trainers in the business, wise it could not be obtained. This EXCLUSIVE information will be sent to all clients who are on my books THIS week.
